C. OF C. DIRECTORS ENTHUSIASTIC FOR ROAD BONDS

BUTLER SUCCEEDS LODGE TO U. S. SENATE

W. C. T. U. MEET CALLED FOLLOWING BALTIMORE DECISION

ELECTION ISSUE IS TAKEN UP BY MEMBERS WEDNESDAY

The officials and directors of the Mexia Chamber of Commerce held an important meeting Wednesday night at the Topic Cafe, at which time a dinner was served.

Hardy Eubanks, President, called the meetin gto order and at the out set presented the matter of the Road Bond issue, the announcement of which appeared in The Mexia Daily News of Wednesday.

He called on Jere Cason, Secretary of the organization and David Murphy, to go thoroughly over the matter and show just what had been done.

It was reported that the Commissioners Court of Limestone County had acted promptly and gladly upon a petition for the bond issue which petition had been signed by more than the legally required citizens and taxpayers of the consolidated Road District number 4. The court ordered the election to be held December 16, 1924.

The petitioners asked for the election to accept or reect bonds of Road District number 4 in the sum of $1,671,000 for the purpose of the purchase and construction of district roads and the further construction, maintnenance and operation of macademized, graveled or paved roads and turn pikes, or in aid thereof throughout such consolidated districts as follows:

FIRST: Bonds to be issued in the aggregate of $271,000.00 for the purpose of the purchase and construction of district roads, in said consolidated district, and which bonds shall have the same dates of maturities, bear the same rates of interest, and have similar options of payment, as the bonds heretofore issued and now outstanding against Road District Nos. Four (4) Twelve (12) and Sixteen (16) of said Limestone county.

SECOND: Bonds to be issued in the aggregate sum of $1,300,000.00 for the further construction, maintenance and operation of macademized graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof throughout such consolidated road district, and which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of 5½ per cent per annum, and be made to mature at such times as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court of Limestone County, Texas, serialy or otherwise, not to exceed 30 years from date thereof.

It was also explained that the territory considered and mentioned in the proposed bond issue, is to be created and established as consolidated road district number 4 of Limestone county, is the same territory comprising road districts 4, 12, and 16.

A map was presented by Mr. Cason, showing the road improvement program that the bond issue would make possible and which it specifically contemplated. This map indicated better roads for the entire territory specified, extending to the Navasota river, several miles beyond Tehuacana, to the county lines of Freestone and Navarro counties and through Shiloh. Not only are the highways to be improved but the laterals also receive the needed attention.

As the plan was unfolded and the matter gone into thoroughly, the entire board became enthusiastic over the subject and the board unanimously went on record as heartily in favor of it and each member present pledged to work hard to give the public the right information between now and the date of the election. It was the opinion of those present that the issue would carry by a big majority should the proposal be thoroughly understood. The opinion was expressed that the road improvement program would benefit the section more even than additional roalroads and that all farm lands in the territory and even beyond would be increased in value.

The Board olso went on record as being highly appreciative of West minster College and appointed a committee, of which J. I. Riddle was made Chairman to begin a campaign to raise the $10,000 needed by the school to be matched with $90,000 from the denomination backing the college from all parts of the several states it serves.

Jesse McLendon, one of the directors of the Chamber of Commrece and who is President of the Salvation Army Board announced that he would call a meeting in a few days, to which would be invited representatives from all organizations in the city to see just what should be done with reference to the future of the Salvation Army in the city. Various members of the Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and President Eubanks urged that the city must take care of its charity cases and favored the community chest idea. The organization will have representatio nat the directors meeting of the Salvation Army when called.

Brokers Swamped As Boom Continues On Wall Street

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Wall Street entered another hectic day today with brokerage houses still swamped with an avalanche of orders on the eighth day of the great post election business boom.

Traders were astounded at the strength of the market which showed a net gain of approximately 4¼ points on the average since the conservative electoral victory, despite heavy profit-taking all along the line.

There were some breaks in prices yesterday but the market on the whole showed a gain with some special issues soaring to great heights.

From a speculative standpoint the street was baffled as to what the market will do next and today's developments were awaited with some anxiety, although many conservative traders believed the rush of buying from all over the Nation would be more than enough to absorb the wide-spread profit-taking.

The fact that taking of profits by many persons in the market had been readily absorbed for the past two days was taken as a good sign and there was a general impression the market should simmer along a few days until paper profits have been collected and actual conditions in business catch up with the wave which has hit the Stock Exchange and the crub market.

With the average price of stocks higher than on any day since 1916, trading yesterday again exceeded 2,000,000 shares. The aggregate turn over was 2,303,435, exceeded only by the tarding last Friday.

An avalanche of orders at the opening established new high prices for the year in fifty-nine railroad and industrial issues many of which were at the highest in eight years.

Great Concourse Follows Remains of A. D. McDonald

One of the largest crowds possibly ever seen at a funeral was that which Wednesday attended the last sad rites of A. D. McDonald of this city. The schools had been dismissed for the afternoon as a tribute to the deceased. The Central Presbyterian church was unable to accommodate the vast throng of loved ones and friends who desired to be present around the flower covered casket. The faculty of all Mexia schools was present, including teachers in the negro schools, a section having been reserved for them.

The service opened with the choir singing "Amazing Grace." The opening prayer was by Rev. Joe Jeffers, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The scripture lesson was read by Paul Harper, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church. A duet was sung by Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Simmons, singing "Some Day We'll Understand." Judge W. M. White, charman of the Mexia School Board paid a tribute to Mr. McDonald which appears elsewhere in this is- Rev. Victor K. Aubrey, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, preached the funeral sermon. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. E H. Hudson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Concerning the mourned citizen, Rev. Aubrey said:

Augustus Dunkin McDorald was born in Rockford, Alabama, November 19, 1853. He came to Texas with his mother, the family settling at New Hope in this county in the year 1869. A few years later he moved to Mexia where he and his family have lived for 30 years. Until the last few years, when he was forced to resign from active business, he was in business conducting a meat market. Brother McDonald joined the church at New Hope and later became a member of the Central Presbyterian Church of Mexia where he served faithfully for many years as a deacon and an elder. Brother McDonald was a regular attendant at the services of this church unless prevented from attending on account of illness. He had his regular pew which is marked today by his absence with a beautiful boquet of flowers to commemorate his faithfulness. He loved his church. When the Synod of Texas convened at Mexia, notwithstanding his serious illness he insisted on entertaining his life long friend, Dr. S. M. Templeton, now of Rockwall, in his own home. The last Friday and Saturday of the Synod Brother McDonald attended the meetings at his church. These meetings of Synod were the last services he attended. The deceased was also a member of the Woodmen of the World, the Ancient Order of United Workers, and the Maccabees, holding prominent offices in each organization.

Brother McDonald was interested in all enterprises of the town for community betterment. He served for many years as City Alderman. He rendered most faithful and valuable service on the Board of Education of Mexia.

The deceased is survived by his wife and ten children, five boys and five girls. The sons are Everett McDonald of Ennis, Milton McDonald of Minneapolis, Leo, Tom Oates and Walter Haggard McDonald of Mexia. The Daughters are Mrs. Leta May Forsythe of Hubbard, Mrs. Williamson Lott of Mexia, Mrs. T. C. Rhodes of Greenville, and Misses Laura and Love McDonald of Mexia.

His departure is mourned by a host of loved ones and friends.

Interment was in the Mexia cemetery, to which a long procession trailed behind the casket, covering the new made mound with a vast heap of lovely flowers. At the graveside, Prof. Jenkins, colored, read a beautiful poem out of respect to the dead.

H. L. Hall delivered a beautiful eulogy, going into the history of the deceased's relation with theCentral Presbytterian church of which he had been an active member and official so long.

VICE PRESIDENT SAYS SOMETHING IS TO BE DONE

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—An executive meeting of the board of directors of the W. C. T. U. in convention here, was hurriedly called when the officers were informed of the jury verdict in the Hill case. "This is a serious matter," Mrs. Ella Boole, national vice president, declared. "We will take same kind of action."

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.—The manufacture of wines and cider of ordinary alcoholic content in private homes is permissible, a jury in the federal court here decided. The jury dismissed all counts of the indictment against Representative Hill of Maryland, who had been charged with unlawful manufacture of 11 64 per cent wine and 2.7 per cent cider in his home. The jury reported after 24 hours deliberation. Counts in the indictment charged him specifically with the manufacture and possession of intoxicants and creating a public nuisance by having intoxicants in his home.

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 13.—The ruling of the Baltimroe federal court will have no effect upon state prohibition laws, Attorney General's office said here.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 13.—Representative John Philip Hill, charged with violating the Volstead act will know today where he and the American home brewer stand in the eyes of the law. A sealed verdict was reached late yesterday by the jury in the case and will be opened in Federal court at 10 a. m. today

The jury retired at 1:15 p. m. yesterday and at 5 35, announced they had reached a verdict. The court ordered them locked up for the night and instructed them to return a sealed verdict at 10 a. m.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 13.—Just how far a citizen may go in the manufacture of cider and light wines in his home was still a moot question being fought out in a United States district court jury room here early today.

Through the long night the jury in the test cast of Representative John Philip Hill of Maryland, to determine the exact scope of the Volstead act on home brewing, argued the evidence and adjourned for breakfast at 7 30 a. m. without yet having reached a verdict.

The jury at that time had been out nearly eighteen hours.

The jury retired at 1:47 p. m. yesterday and as the afternoon wore on with no verdict in sight, Judge Morris Soper, who tried the case, sent in word that the jurymen might go to their homes whenever their decision was reached and return to the court at 10 a. m. to announce their decision.

But midnight came with no word from inside the locked door. Once the foreman called for a dictionary and it was indicated he wanted to look up the "Websterian definition" of the word "wine," a copy of Section No. 29 of the Volstead act was alsos requested It relates to the manufacutre of cider and fruit juices.

THEY ALL WANT IT.

GENEVA, Nov. 12.—Switzerland's allotment for the reconstruction loan to Germany under the Dawes reparation plan has been oversubscribed 108 times, according to a Central Dispatch.

Noel Hollingsworth, chairman of the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist church of this city, left Wednesday for annual conference at Brownwood. The conference opened Wednesday night and will continue through the week. The pastor, Rev. W. B. Andrews, and Mrs. W. B. Landrum, District Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society, are also present from the Mexia church, while Rev. G. W. Kincheloe represents the Mexia Methodist Circuit.

David Murphy was a business visitor to Waco the early part of the week.

FINANCIAL ROMANCE OF WORLD WAR ENDS WITH A TRAGEDY

(By United Press)

LONDODN, Nov. 13.—The suicide here of John Q. Rowett, backer of the last Shackelton expedition to the South Pole, has ended one of the great financial romances of the the war.

Rowett in 1911 was a dealer in rum in a fairly modest way. He wrote an order for six casks of it. A clerk in a wholesale office, misreading the order, made it six cargoes.

A month or two before the outbreak of the war, Rowett began to be deluged with rum. Thousands of casks came from all corners of the earth. Always a simple, straightforward man, Rowett threatened suicide rather than be thought dishonest when the bills came in.

Then the war started. Great Britian began raising an army that was to include altogether about 8,000,000 men. Regulations provided a daily ration of rum for each man. Rowett was the only man in the world who could furnish rum in sufficient quanties and he obtained contracts to suply both the army and navy throughout the war.

The deluge of rum began a deluge of gold, and Rowett emerged a multi-millionaire. He did not know what to do with the money. He made lavish gifts to all sorts of charities and endowed universities. One day he met Sir Ernest Shackleton on the street. They had been at school together.

"You're Shackelton, aren't you?" Rowett asked. "I hear you want to go to the South Pole again"

"I'll furnish the money," Rowett replied. It cost him $500,000.

Shackleton died during his voyage, Rowett believed himself partly responsible. Sir John Stewart, great whiskey dealer and a friend of Rowett's, shot himself, unable to meet liabilities of nearly $10,000,000. Of this he owed $500,000. Rowett thought this might have had something to do with the suicide.

Some investments went bad and Rowett became afraid that he might not be able to meet all his bills. His bankers assured him that he had plenty of money, but Rowett went home despondent, and was found in the library of his palatial home, hanging dead by a sash cord.

Though a verdict of suicide was returned, Rowett's doctor testified he was convinced Rowett was merely rehearsing a suicied in case he went bankrupt.

Big Dirigible May Make Flight

(By United Press)

LAKEHURST, N. J. Nov. 13.—Possibility of a flight of the ZR-3 on Saturday has been expressed by Lieutenant Joseph C. Arnold, in charge of the naval station in the absence of Commander Pierce, who is in Washington conferring with officials of the bureau on aeronautics.

The big gas bag is being inflated with helium and the process should be completed some time Friday.

University Sticks To Minimum Age

(By United Press)

AUSTIN, Nov. 13.—Adhering to the minimum age limit of 16 years, there is no student at Texas University this year younger than sixteen.

For the last few years hardly a session has passed which has not found a student under 16 enrolled through special permission. University members must be convinced, however, that the student is mature for his or her age.

CAMPAIGN HEAD FOR COOLIDGE GETS CHAIR OF SOLON

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—William Butler, who was President Colidge's campaign manager, was appointed by Governor Cox to succeed the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as senior United States Senator from Massachusetts. Butler's appointment holds good for two years, until the next biennial election when he will have to stand for re-election for the remaining two years of Lodge's term.

Cats Go Friday To Play Game At Palestine

The Mexia Black Cats, representing the Mexia High School, go to Palestine Friday for a football game with the team representing the Palestine High School. Coach E. H. Poteet declares that the game is going to be a hard one. The Palestine High School squad is reported to have made much progress since the game with Teague in which the Teague High School was victorious.

"Heck" says, however, that if the Cats fight like they did in the game with Teague that they will win by one touchdown but that if they exhibit no better brand of football than they did against Groesbeck last week that they are due for a one touchdown drubbing.

Due to the distance to Palestine and intervening rough roads, only a few fans are expected to go along to cheer the team but what is lacked in numbers will be made up in quality and quantity of rooting.

One Per Cent In Washington Are Bootleggers

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Five thousand bootleggers are now operating in the national capitol city, was the estimate of Assistant United States District Attorney David Hart. His estimate would make one out of every ninety Washingtonians a bootlegger.

Hart, who has had charge of prohibition enforcement cases here for three years said that of the number now working, all but 250 have appeared before the courts at some time or another. More than 10,000 cases of bootlegging have been prosecuted here since the Volstead Act went into effect.

Colonel Humphreys Back On The Job In Northeast Area

Colonel A. E. Humphreys returned to the oil field today, after spending a couple of days this week in Dallas. He came to see the completion of the dam on Tehuacana Creek and to look after other interests of the Boyd Oil Company. Just when the Boyd test on the Boyd tract will be drilled in has not yet been announced.

Casing has not yet been set in the Boyd Simmons. It is learned the test will drill 20 feet deeper before setting casing. It is reported at 2900.

The scramble for acreage, leases and royalty continues and many deals are yet being made at prices declared unheard of in semi-wildcat territory.

Drilling will soon be under way on the Penn test right in the edge of Wortham.

JIM PRICKETT IS OFF FOR AKRON TIRE MEN'S MEETING

Jim Prickett, President of the Mexia Battery and Tire Company, left Thursday morning for Akron Ohio, where he will attend the annual convention of the National Tire Dealers Association.

Mr. Prickett is a member of the association and stated before leaving that several thousand tire dealers from all parts of the country are expected to attend.

The convention will last about ten days. Many technical are discussed of particular interest to manufacturers who will also be well represented. It gives the dealer the opportunity to give the tire manufacturer the viewpoint of the customer and practical problems of handling the trade also are discussed, thus making progress possible in the development of better tires.

There are 88 factories for tires in Akron.

Building Activity Increases In The South In October

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 13.—Renewed development activity throughout the southern states is reflected in building permit totals for the month of October, which reached a new high figure of $53,015,132 in 106 cities according to records compiled by the survey department of G. L. Miller and company, real estate mortgage bond house, of this city.

This total is as large as the figures reached during the leading building months of the spring building season, is ten millions ahead of the totals for September and forty-six percent in advance of the building for October, 1923. One of the features of the report is that the gains have been uniform throughout the territory, with only a third of reporting cities showing a loss, and these in very small amounts. Also noteworthy are the large number of cities showing hugh totals for the month, and the improved condition of cities showing huge totals for the month, and the improved condition in construction in several states which have recently fallen below their 1923 permits.

The month is dominated by the nine million total from St. Louis, where a single permit for the five million dollar office building for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company dominated the situation. Washington came next, ahead of Baltimore, with the aid of a single permit of a million dollars for the Hecht company store, and several others of goodly size. Dallas continued to lead the cities of the farther south with approximately three millions, of which half represented the addition to the Hotel Adolphus.

The real sensation of the month was Birmingham, with two and a half millions, the largest items of which being $317,500 for the Phillips High school, $292,500 for the Woodlawn High school and $250,000 for the Southern railway building. Kansas City, with a $650,000 Montgomery-Ward warehouse and $200,000 apartment hotel; and Louisville, with $522,000 for the Louisville Petroleum Refinery company, and $125,000 for an eight story apartment, both exceeded two millions.

Lost His Pipe While Speaking

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Charles G. Dawes has lost his upsidedown pipe. This calamity in the life of the Republican Vice-president-elect was caused by women.

When surrounded by a bevy of chorus girls at the opera house he visited to purchase tickets, Dawes got so excited he left the pipe laying on the press agent's desk.

The girls demanded a speech. Dawes said that all he could say was that he was so surprised "he should have so many friends in the opera, especially in the chorus."

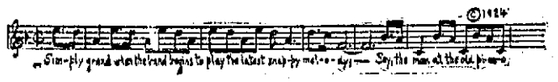
PEOPLE WHO WERE ONCE GOOD LOOKING

A heartrending and yet interesting thing happened in a down town store when a middle-aged lady got into a loud argument with a clerk. "I know what I want," she kept saying, "I have tried all those other things, but I know from what I saw it do for some friends of mine that it is Black and White Ointment which gets rid of these pimples and blotches. I was just as pretty as any girl when I was young, but I got careless and now I am in the fix you see."

So many people are now insisting on Black and White Ointment, and Black and White Soap, to get rid of pimples, blotches, eczema, rash, tetter, ringworm, "breaking out," etc., because they see and hear of the thousands of others who now know they can depend upon it. And they are more economical, too. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and Soap.—(Adv.)

Song Writing Takes A Practical Turn

HOW TO MAKE FAMOUS SONGS



Vincent Lopez Tells How A Good Meal Inspires Lyricists

"A practical era in song writing has come in," says Vincent Lopez, New York orchestra director of the Pennsylvania Hotel. "Lyricists of Tin Pan Alley have exhausted roses, violets and buttercups and have taken to edibles as themes."

Sometimes, according to Mr. Lopez, the pieces produced make those who sing and play them want to go out and get a good hearty meal.

"As far as that goes," declares the well-known leader, "some of them always eat a hearty meal before writing. That is apparently the lowdown on how 'Stringbeans' was written. Vincent Rose, who did the lyrics for the song, said the inspirational beans came from his own garden in Los Angeles. They were green and succulent and when they told him there were enough for another mess the next day, he just broke right down and started in to do the species poetic justice.

"I never start to play 'Stringbeans' at the Hotel Pennsylvania that I don't get hungry. I think I may even get busy some day and write an eating song or so myself."

"Eating songs" began with bananas, continued with applesauce and, it is said, will include all courses from soup to nuts before the vogue is over.

American Voices Heard In Japan Over KGO'S Radio

(By International News Service.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 13.—A two-hour international test—broadcast from KGO, the Pacific Coast General Electric station in Oakland—was successfully picked up 6,000 miles across the Pacific by the Hiraiso experimental station of the Japanese Department of Communications, 500 miles northeast of Tokyo, according to a letter received here today by A. A. Isbell, manager of the Pacific division of the Radio Corporation of America, confirming previous radiograms.

The letter was from Eitaro Yokoyama, of the Japanese Ministry of Communications, and reported that "punctually at 6 p. m., Japan time, the radiophone from KGO began to be heard loudly and distinctly and continued, for two hours, until 8 p. m. The hearers were so surprised at the unexpected loudless of the phone that they could not believe their ears. The speech (easy American English) and the music were the clearest ever heard in this country."

Mr. Yokoyama reported that the operators at the Hiraiso station used a superheterodyne receiver. They picked up the KGO international program and held it throughout.

This is said to be the first time a complete program from an American radiophone station has been heard in Japan.

Officials of the Japanese Ministry of Communications who received the broadcast are enthusiastic in their requests for more broadcasts from KGO, Mr. Isbell said, and he gave it as his opinion that the radio fan will soon put in an appearance in the Orient.

MUSEUM SHOWS TOPAZ THAT WEIGHS 90 POUNDS

(By International News Service.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—A white topaz, weighing ninety pounds, large enough to make 205,120 dinner rings of one carat and said to be the largest precious gem, has been placed on exhibition in the Field Museum here.

It was brought from Marambaia, Minas, Brazil, by O. C. Farrington, head of the museum's department of geology, who headed one of Captain Marshall Field's South American expenditions.

If placed on the market the stone would supply the demand for many years, museum officials said.

TALENTED LITTLE LADY WINS PRIZE AT THE FAIR

Little Miss Frances Elaine King, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zeno King, is being generously commended because of winning quite a distinction at The Dallas Fair recently closed. Mr. and Mrs. King have received formal notice from the Fair authorities that Frances Elaine was awarded a prize for fancy work she did at the age of five years. Her entry was a thirteen luncheon set in cross statches, a real marvel of work for the dainty little Miss. She is now in the third grade and seven years old.

Limestone Citizens Hear Tom Connally Speak At Marlin

Many Limestone County citizens spent Armistice Day in Marlin, where Falls County observed the memorable event with what was declared to have been the finest program with the largest attendance of any similar occasion since the First Armistice day.

Thousands of people from Lott, Rosebud, Chilton, Reagan, Perry, Otto, Kosse and other nearby towns joined in the celebration and the city was gally decorated with bunting, flags and other beautiful decorations.

The parade through the streets led by the St. Paul band and followed by hundreds of school children, Boy Scouts, Confederate veterans and veterans of the Spanish-American and World wars.

The parade ended at the Falls county courthouse, where the great crowd was addressed by Congressman Tom Connally in the district courtroom, which was crowded to full capacity.

Mr. Connally said, "We have met here to signalize this day, because the citizens of Marlin, the citizens of Falls county, every true citizen here, and all over our glorious republic did his part, however humble it may have been, in making the world safe for democracy. We have met here to celebrate the ending of the greatest world conflict the world has ever known. We have met here to celebrate world peace, not world war. I believe that it was reserved for our great country to step into the breach, at the opportune moment, and to make world peace possible."

Immediately after the address of Congressman Connally, the veterans of the wars went to the dining rooms of the Arlington hotel where a great turkey dinner had been prepared under the supervision of the Marlin chapter, U. D. C. Col. Geo. H. Carter of Marlin was toastmaster. He introduced Lieut. Cecil R. Glass, who made the principal address after the luncheon. More than 150 attended.

ROCKLIFFE FELLOWES IN ZANE GREY'S "THE BORDER LEGION"

Rockliffe Fellowes has the role of Kells, leader of "The Border Legion," a notorious band of outlaws in the Zane Grey-Paramount picture of the same name which comes to the National Theatre for a run of three days today.

Fellowes' role is that of a "semi-heavy." His one thought is for gold, and he will go to any end to obtain it. Yet the influence toward good is not entirely dead within him. At the close of the picture he gives his life in protecting Helen Chadwick, who is featured with Antonio Moreno in the leading roles of the production.

Gibson Gowland is Fellowes' lieutenant in the picture, and others in the cast include Charles Ogle, James Corey, Edward Gribbon and Luke Cosgrave.

William Howard directed the production which was adapted to the screen by George Hull.

Over 800 Are On Industrial Pay Rolls In Mexia

In the springtime when Mexia's new cotton mill begins to run, Mexia's tin bucket brigade will be notably increased. The incidental employes already run as follows: Glove Factory, 30; Candy Factory, 10; Mexia New Way Laundry, 30; Brick Manufacturing plant, 25; Two wholesale groceries, 35; cotton oil mill, 75; bottling plants, 25; Wholesale Plumbing Supply house, 10; Light and Power Company, 50; Newspaper and printing plants, 20; Wholesale Produce Concern, 10; Nine Oil Well Supply concerns, 30; Three big oil companies, with headquarters here, 460 employes, representing $47,000,000 capital.

This gives Mexia 810 men and women on pay rolls of industries here already and with the opening of the textile industry, the number will be raised to the 1,000 mark.

This enumeration does not include several hundred employes in the oil field working for more than a dozen oil concerns not mentioned here but who make their homes here or near and who are considered a valuable part of the city and represent families who have proven to be real community assets.

SEVERAL NEW RESIDENCES GO UP IN SOUTH MEXIA

Several new residences have started up around Mexia's rising $400,000 textile mill in the South part of town. Work is progressing rapidly on the buildings, on the houses for employees and on the streets which are being laid off and graded. The great amount of work that is being done in that part of town is surprising to citizens who have visited and inspected the scene.

Who Paid For It?

In an authoritive magazine we read:

"A certain house eight years ago did an annual business of $3,000,000 and the cost of selling the goods amounted to 8 per cent. Good advertising has since then increased their annual business to $15,000,000 and the cost of selling, including advertising expenditures, has fallen to 5 per cent. The salesmen are earning much more money, and the advertising has enabled them to do it, because while their commissions are smaller their sales are made easier and are more than trebled in volume.

Who paid for the advertising?

Not the consumer, for the price of the goods was less than it had been without advertising.

Not the manufacturer, because his total selling cost was 3 per cent less.

Not the salesman, because they made more money.

Who did pay, then? The same inexhaustible source upon which we draw for the cost of all progress—Old Man Waste.

The most expensive institution we have today is the unsuccessful competitor — the business that drags along for years, eating up rent and salaries, and traveling expenses, trying to get orders that someone else can get and execute better and cheaper.

It is cruel, perhaps, but true that the sooner such concerns disappear, the better it is for the public. The advertising of their more aggressive and better-organized competitors brings the end quicker. And it is the money saved by putting a stop to hordes of these petty, wasteful non-successes, which pays for the advertising, and cuts down the cost of the goods you buy.

SPORTLIGHTS

By SCRIBBLES.

The Mexia Hi Black Cats have missed two days of practice during the week and incidentally have had only two days in which to prepare for the Palestine grid warriors. They meet the Palestine eleven in Palestine Friday afternoon and belive me that 90 mile jaunt will be some tiresome for Coach Poteet's Cats and is liable to take some of the pep and fight out of them.

The Teague Hi eleven went down in defeat at the hands of Country Williamson strong Mart Hi eleven Tuesday afternoon by a score of 21 to 0. The Mart team scored all of their counters in the opening period of play and it looked like the Lions were in for a sure enough bad beating but they turned back play after play and held the Mart boys out of scoring on the protegees of Williamson's but the bigger and stronger line of the Mart eleven held.

Country Williamson, former Gusher catcher and Baylor star of both football and baseball, says that he is "waitin' for Poteet and the Cats," and will show them some sure enough football on Turkey day at Nowlin Park.

Coach Poteet also states that he is doing the same thing over here and with both teams confident of victory, a battle can be expected in the last game of the season.

No doubt the Mart team has the advantage over the Cats in weight but little do they care for weight. The forward line of the Mart eleven will outweigh the Cats somewhere around 8 to 10 pounds to the man unless it is at the ends and there they have the Cats outweighed some.

The University of Texas Freshman squad will play the team from Schreiner Institute of Kerrville Friday. The team is weakened by the loss of Leo Baldwin, former Wichita Falls star, who has been declared ineligible. Several other promising stars are also ineligible.

The Marlin Bulldogs and the Belton eleven, playing a game by the order of the State department for the championship of this district, played four scoreless quarters Tuesday afternoon on the Belton gridiron. The first game played last Friday afternoon resulted in a 10 to 6 victory for Marlin but the State department declared Cuffie Lenoir ineligible for the Marlin team and they declared that the game be played over.

Upon returning from Palestine the BlackCats will start training for the game with the Corsicana Tigers here on Friday Nov. 21st. The Tigers defeated the Cats last year on their own gridiron 7 to 0 and the Cats are out for revenge.

Trapping Seasons Opening at Orange

(By United Press)

ORANGE, Nov. 18.—Scores of trappers have already assembled here to prepare for the annual invasion of the marsh lands of Southeast Texas and Southwest Louisiana when the trapping season opens Nov. 15.

The unusual period of dry weather has placed them at a considerable disadvantage, veteran trappers say. Hides will be worth more they contend, however, and they reason that a smaller catch will be worth more or at least as much as a larger one.

PERSEVERANCE

(By Owen Friend Watkins)

It matters not what people say
Just so you do your best;
So when you weaken in the fray
And long for peace and rest
Keep fighting on, keep fighting on,
And in the fight don't be a drone
But do your best thru thick and thin,
Don't be an idler in the strife
Nor growl about your place in life
And some day you will win.

The years to come may prove you right
When people thught you wrong;
So buck the line with all your might
And chant the victor's song
Keep fighting on keep fighting on,
For simple Truth can stand alone
And bear the brunt of sword or pen.
Don't let your feelings spoil your chance
When some dark foe gives you the lance
And some day you will win.
When clouds of sorrow make you feel
Just like you'd lost the fight,
Stay with the ship and steer the wheel
And with your will and might
Keep fighting on, keep fighting on,
For soon the clouds will all be gone
And blessed sunshine filter in.
Don't let the wail of dark remorse
Ere turn you from life's chosen course
And some day you will win.

The rich and poor alike must stand
Before our laws and God;
So when you roam this smiling land
Wherever man hath trod
Keep fighting on, keep fighting on,
And in the fight don't be a drone,
Nor raise the cry, "it might have been."
If you would conquer in the fight
Stand by your banner for the right
And some day you will win.

Such popularity must be deserved

TO convert critics into enthusiasts, whether for a new school of music or for a cigarette, requires something more than luck. There's sound reason for every big swing in popular taste.

So, to account for Chesterfield's swift rise, look to the cigarette itself, its tobaccos, its blending—in short, its taste. This one thing alone—its decidedly better taste—explains why thousands of smokers are changing from other cigarettes to Chesterfield.

A THREATENING MENACE IN TEXAS

The abandonment of babies in Texas is a subject of growing concern to every thoughtful parent and patriot. Texas, grand old Texas, the state of the Lone Star, rich in its history, mighty in its resources and magnificent in prospect is facing a menace, home wrecking, undermining and suicidal in the vast number of instances in which baby Texans are being cast aside like a worn out garment by their parents. The subject is so serious that the Superintendent of the Girls' Training School at Gainesville included a comment on it in a report recently to Governor Pat M. Neff.

The report comes just after the announcement in The News of the abandonment of a fine two year old baby girl right here in Limestone county. The Salvation Army of Mexia is now looking for a temporary home for the unfortunate little bundle of flesh, blood, bone and soul.

So this community is not exempt from the evil. Indeed, several other similar cases have been reported by the Salvation Army in Mexia in recent years.

In speaking of delinquent youth in Texas, Dr. Carrie Weaver Smith of the Training School, in her report to the Governor also says: The most striking cause that brings girls to the training school is wrecked homes due to divorce. Thirty-eight per cent of the girls in the school come from homes which have been abandoned for this cause and the children set adrift. The increase in the number of divorces of parents of the girls in the school has risen since 1920 from 16 per cent to 38 per cent. Fifty per cent of the parents were addicted to narcotics and alcohol; 5 per cent of both parents were dead; 17 per cent of the fathers and 25 per cent of the mothers were dead; 28 per cent of the parents of the girls were victims of mental disorders. A large majority of the parents, fully 78 per cent, were poor, owning no property whatever. The conclusion drawn is that poverty and divorce was the cause which contributed most to the downfall of these girls.

"Texas is exceedingly remiss in its recognition of the value of probation and truant officers for juvenile offenders," said the report. "The law providing for these officers is very inadequate and should be revised immediately. There are only 23 official probation officers in the State of Texas, which has a population of 4,663,228. With 252 counties, only 13 have probation officers at all, and these are obviously inadequate numbers.

Dr. Smith suggests the following remedies:

"First, Statewide agitation; second, a law which forces counties to appoint and pay probation officers just as regularly as they do any other county official; third, and probably the most important, is a public sentiment that will recognize this school as an education institution and not a disciplinary or penal institution."

Dr. Smith believes that institutions for delinquents should be looked upon as special schools, just as the school for the deaf or blind, and the legal procedure should give place to an inquiry by either appointed bodies or trustees. The juvenile court, she said, is the last place in the world for a juvenile, no matter how humanely it is conducted.

"The girls coming to this school," continued the report, "are generally the victims of older men and are almost invariably induced to 'run around' by older women, who seem to enjoy practical immunity in Texas. The consciousness in a young girl's mind that she has, either by force of untold circumstances or deliberately committed what is socially deemed to be the unpardonable sin, together with the unfortunate attitude of society, is in itself a terrible deterrent from future rehabilitation and complicates her status from the very start."

PRESIDENT OF MEXIA SCHOOL BOARD PAYS TRIBUTE TO FELLOW MEMBER, LATE AND LAMENTED A. D. McDONALD

The following tribute was paid Wednesday to the late and lamented, A. D. McDonald, member of the Mexia School Board for many years, by Judge W. M. White, Chairman:

It is with sincere and deep regret that the Mexia School Board is called on to pay this last tribute of love and respect to a deceased member. Mr McDonald was elected a member of the first school board that took over the management of the schools when Mexia became an independent district, about twenty years ago, and, so far as I remember, he has been an efficient officer and an honored member of the board continuously since that time.

He has at all times taken a keen and active interest in the city's schools, and has contributed by his safe counsels, his untiring effort and his unrelenting zeal to make our schools what they are today, among the best in the state

Mr. McDonald has for many years been chairman of the committee on Buildings and Grounds, and our splendid edifices and the civic beauty of their surroundings bear lasting testimony of his artistic taste and of his splendid judgment of the needs of our public schools.

As a member of the school board he was at all times courteous, kind and affable in his conduct towards his fellow members I have never heard him speak an unkind word in a meeting, nor criticize the motives of those who may have taken a position opposing his views He was zealous and ardent in contending for the right as he saw it, but graceful and dignified in yielding to the majority when his views were not adopted.

So highly esteemed was Mr McDonald by the board and by the city of Mexia that I do not remember that his place on the board has ever been sought by any other person, but he has been re elected time after time by common consent and without opposition

The same genial, lovely disposition that endeared him to his fellows on the school board made him popular with all of his associates in the other walks of life; he loved his fellow men and enjoyed being associated with them in fraternal orders, and they in turn loved him and have honored him with every office in the many and various orders to which he belonged. He was a good citizen, a Christian gentleman, a loyal friend, an untiring worker for the upbuilding of his town and community, and his place will be hard to fill; his memory will live ever green in the hearts of his associates and co-workers.

It has been estimated that 38,000,000 acres must be added to the present crop producing lands of the United States to feed the population it is expected to have by 1950.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.

"KEEP Your Credit GOOD!"

Don't be a Credit Cast-away!

CREDIT is more than a matter of money. It is a matter of character. Good credit is a progressive asset. Poor credit is a progress handicap. What is more forlorn than the man without credit—the man who has been trusted by his fellows and flunked the trust?

By the same reasoning, what is more beneficial than good credit? The man with good credit looks to the future unafraid. Opportunities are his. Credit, his advantage. The man alert to his own interest—PAYS UP AND KEEPS HIS CREDIT GOOD!

Rush For Fame At Hollywood Is On

HAROLD E. SWISHER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13.—The fall crops are being harvested throughout rural America. The fall rush of sleek-haired, would-be husbandmen and bobbed-tressed farmerettes, hoping for rich pickings in Hollywood, is in full swing. All of them are praying for a plenteous yield of fame and funds. Most of them are doomed to painful disillusionment.

Throughout the year there is a steady stream of aspirants to cinema fortune pouring into Hollywood but in the spring and again in the fall is this flow the strongest.

True, cameras are clicking merrily in most of the studios with production programs showing little signs of the usual slack season in the closing of the year. But the host of those who would gain renown before the sputtering arcs is constantly increasing.

Each time some hitherto unknown is signed for a stellar part, the wave of those seeking similar opportunities well-nigh breaks down the studio gates. It is conservatively estimaed that if all the pretty girls who hocked their rings and bought tickets for Hollywood when they read of the good fortune of Betty Bronson, a nobody in filmland, being selected for the title role in "Peter Pan," were back washing dishes in their home kitchens, half the mothers in the nation could go out and join Mah-Jong clubs or attend all the matinees.

"Read 'Merton of the Movies' and then bear in mind that not all young men have the luck that Merton did." is the advice of William de Mille, noted Paramount producer, and the words are blown right back into his mouth by the rush of newcomers.

Director Takes Chance

"The amateur actor who comes to Hollywood usually thinks he is taking a great risk in spending a hundred dollars or more for railroad fare," de Mille continues undiscouraged. "But the director who engages him is taking the greater chance, because hundreds of thousands of dollars are involved in every film production.

"The producer usually selects players whose work he knows. Every hour costs money and the director who is compelled to spend time teaching the amateur how to act is loading himself with a tremendous expense, and even then he is never certain that the work of the amateur will be satisfactory."

"The actor who knows his business who has mastered the art of acting and make-up, costs less money to the producer than the inexperienced youth whose every appearance before the camera means a waste of time and film," in de Mille's opinion.

"I have given several young men a chance to play quite important parts in my productions and the result has usually been that we have all regretted it They were not ready for the parts and felt discouraged, and I had spent thousands of dollars for nothing.

"The worst thing that can happen to a novice is to have a big opportunity before he is ready for it. A part that is too small for him is better than one that is too big. He will grow in the first and fail in the second.

"Some young men have come to the studios ready to do anything This is a dangerous method of entrance unless the amateur actor has that rare spark of ambition which will not allow him to be diverted from his aim Using another job as the stepping stone to the next one is usually very fine, but it generally results in the young man being permanently sidetracked into something else.

"The man who is willing to do anything may end by doing nothing. He comes out here to be an actor and ends by being always a property man."

Reading Subtitles

Everyone in the world hates the nit-wits who read the subtitles aloud in the motion picture theatres. The public at large will rise up and cheer to learn that the first definite steps against the babblers may be taken when "The Merry Widow" is exhibited. It will not be necessary to wreak justifiable homicide against them. The law will take its course.

When the screen rights were purchased to the famous light opera, to be filmed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with Erich von Stroheim directing and Mae Murray starring in the title role, the contract definitely stated that no spoken word of the original book of the opera may be used in the theatre in which it is showing. The text may be used as printed matter on the screen—the subtitles—but anyone speaking a line from the play is liable to a heavy fine. So if they read 'em aloud, the gendarmes may get 'em if they don't watch out.

Warning to Flappers

Flappers take warning. If you plan to change your hair, dress so your ears show. Listen to Colleen Moore's experience: For the first time in years the famous flapper of the movies is called upon to publicly exhibit her ears for her role in "So Big", a new film in which she portrays the girl of 1890.

Drafts at the studio on her tender ears brought on neuralgia, according to Colleen's physician. Now she's wearing ear-muffs between scenes to prevent further suffering.

So if you plan to expose your ears, buy your ear-muffs first.

Restful Bedroom

Bedrooms should be more than comfortable. They should be becoming to the occupant, that is, developed in the color most restful and soothing as well as personally becoming to that occupant. Then the room cannot fail in its mission of affording complete and happy relaxation of mind as well as body. Women especially react to the psychological influence of pleasing colors and dainty accessories.

It is not necessarily expensive to furnish and equip a bedroom according to a definite color scheme, pale yellow, or lavender, rose, blue, pink or gray. Expensive fabrics for draperies and bedcovers are not needed.

Mattress, pillow ticks and blankets should harmonize with the other decorations and fittings A Nashua throw for couch or chaise longue, or blanket for bed, is an additional bedroom comfort.

Took a Friend's Advice

Houston, Texas—"When I was comparatively a young woman I became afflicted with woman's trouble and got so I could hardly walk I had a delicacy in submitting my case to the doctors Finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did so, and before I had taken three bottles I was all right. Later on in life I became afflicted with a kind of poison in my blood, for this I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery', and gradually my blood became pure. I never again had anything like either of these afflictions."—Mrs. D. M. Wilson, 1521 Fulton St All dealers.

As Mild as Morning Dew!

"Impossible!" you may say, but a test will prove it a fact. A new mild and non-sickening calomel has been perfected—one that men, women and children can take with the greatest of safety. It is free from impurities that cause salivation, free from cramping, griping, drastic effects, free from all unpleasantness. It works on a new principle. The purest English calomel is combined with pepsin. The pepsin dissolves slowly and allows the calomel to be absorbed into the system without forming a strong calomel solution. That is why it cannot sicken. From your druggist. Prepared by the Pepsinated Calomel Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Farm Exhibits To Show Gulf Coast Counties Products

SINTON, Texas, Nov. 13.—Four cars of an eleven car special will be devoted to exhibits of products of the Gulf Coast section arriving in Mexia on Nov. 18 and open in Mexia from 4 to 9:30 p. m. The Black Land Special will carry more than a hundred successful farmers of Nueces, San Patricio, Jim Wells and Kleburg counties who originally lived in the section of North Texas covered by the special between Lockhart and Denison and Algon. They will be accompanied by a number of business men from the towns in the section and the famous Twentieth Infantry band from Fort Sam Houston, near San Antonio.

One car will be devoted to cotton and its products. Exhibits will show why the section has developed into such importance that one of the counties in 1923 stood fourth in Texas in cotton production. Rows of cotton stalks will be shown in the soil which produced over a period of ten years an average of five-eighths of a bale of cotton to the acre. Government figures showed that over this period the cotton growing section led the world with the highest yield of cotton per acre. The soil is of the Victoria clay and loam, a rich black hog wallow land of the type that won first prize at the Paris exposition of soils. The exhibits in this car will also show how the long staple is produced by this soil with pure bred cotton seed. Cotton oil and textile mill products, the latter from the mill at Kingsville, will also be exhibited.

The grain car will show kaffir, milo maize, higari and feterita, all produced in these counties with a heavy yield. Due to the long seasons two crops of this type of grain are usually grown on the same land. Cane, Sudan grass, Rhodes grass and other forage grasses produce high yields of hay. In the center of the car will be a shock of kaffir, milo maize, etc., surrounded by pumpkins, etc.

In the third car fruits and vegetables grown in the Gulf Coast section will be shown. Oranges, lemons, grapes, and grape fruit will be shown in the center of the car, while at one end will be a field scene showing the principal truck products of tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers, beans, cabbage, etc.

Specialties will be shown in the fourth car and this is expected to attract an unusual amount of interest because of the features and odd matters shown. A contour map done in clay will show the location of the gas field which geologists declare will last a third longer than the average field. Miniature derricks will mark the location of the wells, and pipe lines for distribution will be shown.

A clerk in a furniture store at Portland, Me., patiently opened roll after roll of linoleum for a customer whom he could not satisfy after an hour's work. Then, says the Boston Globe, she announced that what she really wanted was a very small design suitable for the floor of a canary cage.

WAR MAY HAVE ITS TERRORS BUT NOT FOR OUR DEVIL DOGS

By BERT L. KUHN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 13.—War may have its terrors, but not for the American Marine detachment included in the Allied naval forces landed for the defense of the International Settlement of Shanghai. When the "Devil Dogs" landed they landed "soft," take it from them.

It so happened that when the allied defense plan for Shanghai was drawn up the defense of the Riverside Power Station, which supplies all of the electricity for Shanghai and is, therefore, of the utmost strategic importance, was assigned to them. Officials of the Shanghai Municipal Electricity Department, with the proper respect for America's famous soldiers of thesea, prepared a great welcome for them. Excellent barracks were fitted up in one section of the power plant, and the piece de resistance was a kitchen which included every known type of electrical household appliance. The "Devil Dogs" are now doing all of their cooking on electric stoves; they have electric toasters, electric egg cookers, electric coffee percolators and even electric boilers to warm the water for the hot toddies which are still quite legal in Shanghai.

10-Year Old Boy From Minnesota On a Lion Hunt

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Ten-year-old Eric King, who hails from Minnesota, is going big game hunting in Africa. Eric is accompanying his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. King, on a zoological expedition for the University of Minnesota and the American Museum of Natural History in New York.

"Aw, not so much," was Eric's bashful reply when asked whether he was thrilled bythe prospect. "I've shot and alligator in Florida. Of course we don't consider alligators very terrible, but I should think a snarling lion or a real mad tiger would make a chap's knees shake."

Eric will spend his eleventh birthday in the jungle a few hundred miles from Nairobi.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

NEW HAVEN—The Yale eleven will face the conquerors of Harvard next Saturday without any scrimmage practice since last week's game, Coach Tad Jones announced. Secret signal drill, punting and dummy scrimmage will constitute the program for the Elis.

PRINCETON—Coach Bill Roper sent the Tiger team through a long defensive drill on Yale plays, followed by practice in getting down under punts. Roper said the team will take it easy the remainder of the week.

CAMBRIDGE—Harvard's 'varsity was strengthened today with the return of Coad yand Maher to the line up who showed well in scrimmage against the scrubs who used Brown plays against the regulars with little success.

WEST POINT—The Army was put through another long session working until long after dark on defensive drill against Columbia formations. The scrubs were unable to do much, using Columbia plays against the varsity who consistently broke through all their formations.

ANNAPOLIS—The Navy varsity was given a long hard scrimmage with the second team, followed by signal drill that lasted after dark. Captain Taylor, who was injured in the Vermont game, was back in uniform and will probably be able to play Saturday.

CHICAGO—Confident their line—rated best in the conference—will turn back Northwestern, Stagg's Maroons restricted practice to signal dirll. Final practice, except for limbering exercises Friday, will be held today.

URBANA, Ill.—Coach Zuppke today was gravely concerned over the weakness of his line. With the best backfield anywhere, "Zuppke" hopes to balance the team before the Illini meet Minnesota Saturday.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Behind closed gates the Wolverines were subjected to a hard attack by the freshmen who used Ohio plays.

MADISON, Wis.—Dummy scrimmage replaces regular scrimmage on the Badger program to avoid injuries before entering the Iowa game. Rumors of proposed changes in the coaching staff overshadowed actual preparations.

COLLEGE STATION—The Texas Aggies wound up practice today for their clash with Rice Institute here tomorrow with light scrimmage.

WACO—Perfection of a defense against aerial attack was the goal set up for the Baylor Bears with the decisive conference game with S. M. U. at Dallas only two days away.

FORT WORTH—Coach Bell plugged away upon a defensive today for the crippled Horned Frogs to send out against the equally maimed Longhorns here Saturday. Both teams have several regulars out on account of injuries.

DALLAS—Routine parctice kept the Mustangs on the field through a long session today.

AUSTIN—Coach Doc Stewart was not fully decided today upon the Longhorn alignment against the Horned Frogs at Fort Worth Saturday. Several second string men will probably get a berth in the week-end game.

Charlie Henderson Out For The Ring Karem Is To Give

Like a cloud burst in a Brazos bottom, Karems latest ring contender burst forth into full bloom with the rising sun of a December morn and cast his hat, boots and shoes into the ring with a vim that echoes a challenge to the entire territory of Karem Temple, which embraces no small part of Texas itself.

Born like a mighty meteor in the calm of a peaceful sky, this ardent admirer of Karems ring announces through his various campaign managers, the advent of his candidacy which will burst into full bloom on the evening of Mexia Shrine Clubs novel program of entertainment at the Reunion ground club house next Friday evening at 8 P. M., at which it is expected 200 shriners and their friends will participate.

Campaign managers are now busy arranging a speaking tour for Charlie Henderson well known to those who order their daily bread and those who chance to gaze upon this handsome blond in Jimmie Cafe of which Charlie is a partner in the firm.

Charlie promises lots of eats to the ladies who lend him their moral support and influence with their shriner husbands and sweethearts, who alone, can cast the ballot that decides the ring honors. The opening campaign speech at the club house Friday evening promises to be a distinct feature of the evenings program.

Shriners and invited guests are urged to get behind Mexias candidate and start the program with a roar and the results are inevitable.

A Sumerian hymn 4000 years old, believed to be the oldest musical composition in the world, has been translated by a historian in Germany.

U. S. Presbyterians Hold Stewardship Meetings in Texas

Grandson of Garibaldi Wants to Fight.

Gen. Peppino Garibaldi, grandson of the great Italian liberator, has declined the challenge to a duel sent him by Gen. Varini, commanding the Roman legions of the Fascisti, who charges Garibaldi insulted the Fascisti in a message of protest, in which he asserted many former Italian soldiers had been attacked in cowardly fashion by the Fascisti. Garibaldi declined the duel, declaring he intended to fight the head of the Fascisti, Premier Benito Mussolini.

Hansom cab drivers are prominent among the band of commercial Londoners who are depressed over the ending of the American tourist season. Americans are their best customers, and during the summer the drivers are able to make a surplus that takes them over the lean winter months, when their airy and slow vehicles can not combat the present day taxi.

How Doctors Treat Colds and The Flu

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, but far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

Bad Coughs Ended Quickly by Double-Action Remedy

Remarkable results in quickly clearing up the severest coughs have been obtained with a prescription by a well-known specialist that does two things at once. It not only soothes and heals the soreness and irritation, but it very quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. It is often astonishing how speedily the cough stops.

The prescription is known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. It is particularly valuable for night coughing. To promptly end this annoying and weakening scourge, simply before retiring take one teaspoonful of Dr. King's New Discovery and hold it in your throat 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing. People who have been unable to rest on account of continual coughing have often gotten their full 8 or 9 hours' sleep by this simple method.

Dr. King's is excellent, too, for children's spasmodic croup, bronchitis, laryngitis, bronchial asthma and hoarseness. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

C. OF C. DIRECTORS ENTHUSIASTIC FOR ROAD BONDS

BUTLER SUCCEEDS LODGE TO U. S. SENATE

W. C. T. U. MEET CALLED FOLLOWING BALTIMORE DECISION

ELECTION ISSUE IS TAKEN UP BY MEMBERS WEDNESDAY

The officials and directors of the Mexia Chamber of Commerce held an important meeting Wednesday night at the Topic Cafe, at which time a dinner was served.

Hardy Eubanks, President, called the meetin gto order and at the out set presented the matter of the Road Bond issue, the announcement of which appeared in The Mexia Daily News of Wednesday.

He called on Jere Cason, Secretary of the organization and David Murphy, to go thoroughly over the matter and show just what had been done.

It was reported that the Commissioners Court of Limestone County had acted promptly and gladly upon a petition for the bond issue which petition had been signed by more than the legally required citizens and taxpayers of the consolidated Road District number 4. The court ordered the election to be held December 16, 1924.

The petitioners asked for the election to accept or reect bonds of Road District number 4 in the sum of $1,571,000 for the purpose of the purchase and construction of district roads and the further construction, maintntenance and operation of macademized, graveled or paved roads and turn pikes, or in aid thereof throughout such consolidated districts as follows:

FIRST: Bonds to be issued in the aggregate of $271,000.00 for the purpose of the purchase and construction of district roads, in said consolidated district, and which bonds shall have the same dates of maturities, bear the same rates of interest, and have similar options of payment, as the bonds heretofore issued and now outstanding against Road District Nos. Four (4) Twelve (12) and Sixteen (16) of said Limestone county.

SECOND: Bonds to be issued in the aggregate sum of $1,300,000.00 for the further construction, maintenance and operation of macademized graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof throughout such consolidated road district, and which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of 5½ per cent per annum, and be made to mature at such times as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court of Limestone County, Texas, serialy or otherwise, not to exceed 30 years from date thereof.

It was also explained that the territory considered and mentioned in the proposed bond issue, is to be created and established as consolidated road district number 4 of Limestone county, is the same territory comprising road districts 4, 12, and 16.

A map was presented by Mr. Cason, showing the road improvement program that the bond issue would make possible and which it specifically contemplated. This map indicated better roads for the entire territory specified, extending to the Navasota river, several miles beyond Tehuacana, to the county lines of Freestone and Navarro counties and through Shiloh. Not only are the highways to be improved but the laterals also receive the needed attention.

As the plan was unfolded and the matter gone into thoroughly, the entire board became enthusiastic over the subject and the board unanimously went on record as heartily in favor of it and each member present pledged to work hard to give the public the right information between now and the date of the election. It was the opinion of those present that the issue would carry by a big majority should the proposal be thoroughly understood. The opinion was expressed that the road improvement program would benefit the section more even than additional roalroads and that all farm lands in the territory and even beyond would be increased in value.

The Board olso went on record as being highly appreciative of West minster College and appointed a committee, of which J. I. Riddle was made Chairman to begin a campaign to raise the $10,000 needed by the school to be matched with $90,000 from the denomination backing the college from all parts of the several states it serves.

Jesse McLendon, one of the directors of the Chamber of Commrece and who is President of the Salvation Army Board announced that he would call a meeting in a few days, to which would be invited representatives from all organizations in the city to see just what should be done with reference to the future of the Salvation Army in the city. Various members of the Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and President Eubanks urged that the city must take care of its charity cases and favored the community chest idea. The organization will have representatio nat the directors meeting of the Salvation Army when called.

Brokers Swamped As Boom Continues On Wall Street

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Wall Street entered another hectic day today with brokerage houses still swamped with an avalanche of orders on the eighth day of the great post election business boom.

Traders were astounded at the strength of the market which showe da net gain of approximately 4¼ points on the average since the conservative electoral victory, despite heavy profit-taking all along the line.

There were some breaks in prices yesterday but the market on the whole showed a gain with some special issues soaring to great heights.

From a speculative standpoint the street was baffled as to what the market will do next and today's developments were awaited with some anxiety, although many conservative traders believed the rush of buying from all over the Nation would be more than enough to absorb the wide-spread profit-taking.

The fact that taking of profits by many persons in the market had been readily absorbed for the past two days was taken as a good sign and there was a general impression the market should simmer along a few days until paper profits have been collected and actual conditions in business catch up with the wave which has hit the Stock Exchange and the crub market.

With the average price of stocks higher than on any day since 1916, trading yesterday again exceeded 2,000,000 shares. The aggregate turn over was 2,303,435, exceeded only by the tarding last Friday.

An avalanche of orders at the opening established new high prices for the year in fifty-nine railroad and industrial issues many of which were at the highest in eight years.

Great Concourse Follows Remains of A. D. McDonald

One of the largest crowds possibly ever seen at a funeral was that which Wednesday attended the last sad rites of A. D. McDonald of this city. The schools had been dismissed for the afternoon as a tribute to the deceased. The Central Presbyterian church was unable to accommodate the vast throng of loved ones and friends who desired to be present around the flower covered casket. The faculty of all Mexia schools was present, including teachers in the negro schools, a section having been reserved for them.

The service opened with the choir singing "Amazing Grace." The opening prayer was by Rev. Joe Jeffers, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The scripture lesson was read by Paul Harper, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church. A duet was sung by Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Simmons, singing "Some Day We'll Understand." Judge W. M. White, charman of the Mexia School Board paid a tribute to Mr. McDonald which appears elsewhere in this is-Rev. Victor K. Aubrey, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, preached the funeral sermon. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. E. H. Hudson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Concerning the mourned citizen, Rev. Aubrey said:

Augustus Dunkin McDonald was born in Rockford, Alabama, November 19, 1853. He came to Texas with his mother, the family settling at New Hope in this county in the year 1869. A few years later he moved to Mexia where he and his family have lived for 30 years. Until the last few years, when he was forced to resign from active business, he was in business conducting a meat market. Brother McDonald joined the church at New Hope and later became a member of the Central Presbyterian Church of Mexia where he served faithfully for many years as a deacon and an elder. Brother McDonald was a regular attendant at the services of this church unless prevented from attending on account of illness. He had his regular pew which is marked today by his absence with a beautiful boquet of flowers to commemorate his faithfulness. He loved his church. When the Synod of Texas convened at Mexia, notwithstanding his serious illness he insisted on entertaining his life long friend, Dr. S. M. Templeton, now of Rockwall, in his own home. The last Friday and Saturday of the Synod Brother McDonald attended the meetings at his church. These meetings of Synod were the last services he attended. The deceased was also a member of the Woodmen of the World, the Ancient Order of United Workers, and the Maccabees, holding prominent offices in each organization.

Brother McDonald was interested in all enterprises of the town for community betterment. He served for many years as City Alderman. He rendered most faithful and valuable service on the Board of Education of Mexia.

The deceased is survived by his wife and ten children, five boys and five girls. The sons are Everett McDonald of Ennis, Milton McDonald of Minneapolis, Leo, Tom Oates and Walter Haggard McDonald of Mexia. The Daughters are Mrs. Leta May Forsythe of Hubbard, Mrs. Williamson Lott of Mexia, Mrs. T. C. Rhodes of Greenville, and Misses Laura and Love McDonald of Mexia.

His departure is mourned by a host of loved ones and friends.

Interment was in the Mexia cemetery, to which a long procession trailed behind the casket, covering the new made mound with a vast heap of lovely flowers. At the graveside, Prof. Jenkins, colored, read a beautiful poem out of respect to the dead.

H. L. Hall delivered a beautiful eulogy, going into the history of the deceased's relation with theCentral Presbytterian church of which he had been an active member and official so long.

VICE PRESIDENT SAYS SOMETHING IS TO BE DONE

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—An executive meeting of the board of directors of the W. C. T. U. in convention here, was hurriedly called when the officers were informed of the jury verdict in the Hill case. "This is a serious matter," Mrs. Ella Boole, national vice president, declared. "We will take same kind of action."

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.—The manufacture of wines and cider of ordinary alcoholic content in private homes is permissible, a jury in the federal court here decided. The jury dismissed all counts of the indictment against Representative Hill of Maryland, who had been charged with unlawful manufacture of 11.64 per cent wine and 2.7 per cent cider in his home. The jury reported after 24 hours deliberation. Counts in the indictment charged him specifically with the manufacture and possession of intoxicants and creating a public nuisance by having intoxicants in his home.

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 13.—The ruling of the Baltimroe federal court will have no effect upon state prohibition laws, Attorney General's office said here.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 13.—Representative John Philip Hill, charged with violating the Volstead act will know today where he and the American home brewer stand in the eyes of the law. A sealed verdict was reached late yesterday by the jury in the case and will be opened in Federal court at 10 a. m. today.

The jury retired at 1:15 p. m. yesterday and at 5:35, announced they had reached a verdict. The court ordered them locked up for the night and instructed them to return a sealed verdict at 10 a. m.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 13.—Just how far a citizen may go in the manufacture of cider and light wines in his home was still a moot question being fought out in a United States district court jury room here early today.

Through the long night the jury in the test cast of Representative John Philip Hill of Maryland, to determine the exact scope of the Volstead act on home brewing, argued the evidence and adjourned for breakfast at 7:30 a. m. without yet having reached a verdict.

The jury at that time had been out nearly eighteen hours.

The jury retired at 1:47 p. m. yesterday and as the afternoon wore on with no verdict in sight, Judge Morris Soper, who tried the case, sent in word that the jurymen might go to their homes whenever their decision was reached and return to the court at 10 a. m. to announce their decision.

But midnight came with no word from inside the locked door. Once the foreman called for a dictionary and it was indicated he wanted to look up the "Websterian definition" of the word "wine," a copy of Section No. 29 of the Volstead act was alsos requested. It relates to the manufacutre of cider and fruit juices.

GENEVA, Nov. 12.—Switzerland's allotment for the reconstruction loan to Germany under the Dawes reparation plan has been oversubscribed 108 times, according to a Central Dispatch.

Noel Hollingsworth, chairman of the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist church of this city, left Wednesday for annual conference at Brownwood. The conference opened Wednesday night and will continue through the week. The pastor, Rev. W. B. Andrews, and Mrs. W. B. Landrum, District Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society, are also present from the Mexia church, while Rev. G. W. Kincheloe represents the Mexia Methodist Circuit.

David Murphy was a business visitor to Waco the early part of the week.

FINANCIAL ROMANCE OF WORLD WAR ENDS WITH A TRAGEDY

(By United Press)

LONDODN, Nov. 13.—The suicide here of John Q. Rowett, backer of the last Shackelton expedition to the South Pole, has ended one of the great financial romances of the the war.

Rowett in 1914 was a dealer in rum in a fairly modest way. He wrote an order for six casks of it. A clerk in a wholesale office, misreading the order, made it six cargoes.

A month or two before the outbreak of the war, Rowett began to be deluged with rum. Thousands of casks came from all corners of the earth. Always a simple, straightforward man, Rowett threatened suicide rather than be thought dishonest when the bills came in.

Then the war started. Great Britian began raising an army that was to include altogether about 8,000,000 men. Regulations provided a daily ration of rum for each man. Rowett was the only man in the world who could furnish rum in sufficient quanties and he obtained contracts to suply both the army and navy throughout the war.

The deluge of rum began a deluge of gold, and Rowett emerged a multi-millionaire. He did not know what to do with the money. He made lavish gifts to all sorts of charities and endowed universities. One day he met Sir Ernest Shackleton on the street. They had been at school together.

"You're Shackelton, aren't you?" Rowett asked. "I hear you want to go to the South Pole again."

"I'll furnish the money," Rowett replied. It cost him $500,000.

Shackleton died during his voyage, Rowett believed himself partly responsible. Sir John Stewart, great whiskey dealer and a friend of Rowett's, shot himself, unable to meet liabilities of nearly $10,000,000. Of this he owed $500,000. Rowett thought this might have had something to do with the suicide.

Some investments went bad and Rowett became afraid that he might not be able to meet all his bills. His bankers assured him that he had plenty of money, but Rowett went home despondent, and was found in the library of his palatial home, hanging dead by a sash cord.

Though a verdict of suicide was returned, Rowett's doctor testified he was convinced Rowett was merely rehearsing a suicied in case he went bankrupt.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—William Butler, who was President Colidge's campaign manager, was appointed by Governor Cox to succeed the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as senior United States Senator from Massachusetts. Butler's appointment holds good for two years, until the next biennial election when he will have to stand for re-election for the remaining two years of Lodge's term.

Cats Go Friday To Play Game At Palestine

The Mexia Black Cats, representing the Mexia High School, go to Palestine Friday for a football game with the team representing the Palestine High School. Coach E. H. Poteet declares that the game is going to be a hard one. The Palestine High School squad is reported to have made much progress since the game with Teague in which the Teague High School was victorious.

"Heck" says, however, that if the Cats fight like they did in the game with Teague that they will win by one touchdown but that if they exhibit no better brand of football than they did against Groesbeck last week that they are due for a one touchdown drubbing.

Due to the distance to Palestine and intervening rough roads, only a few fans are expected to go along to cheer the team but what is lacked in numbers will be made up in quality and quantity of rooting.

One Per Cent In Washington Are Bootleggers

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Five thousand bootleggers are now operating in the national capitol city, was the estimate of Assistant United States District Attorney David Hart. His estimate would make one out of every ninety Washingtonians a bootlegger.

Hart, who has had charge of prohibition enforcement cases here for three years said that of the number now working, all but 250 have appeared before the courts at some time or another. More than 10,000 cases of bootlegging have been prosecuted here since the Volstead Act went into effect.

Colonel Humphreys Back On The Job In Northeast Area

Colonel A. E. Humphreys returned to the oil field today, after spending a couple of days this week in Dallas. He came to see the completion of the dam on Tehuacana Creek and to look after other interests of the Boyd Oil Company. Just when the Boyd test on the Boyd tract will be drilled in has not yet been announced.

Casing has not yet been set in the Boyd Simmons. It is learned the test will drill 20 feet deeper before setting casing. It is reported at 2900.

The scramble for acreage, leases and royalty continues and many deals are yet being made at prices declared unheard of in semi-wildcat territory.

Drilling will soon be under way on the Penn test right in the edge of Wortham.

JIM PRICKETT IS OFF FOR AKRON TIRE MEN'S MEETING

Jim Prickett, President of the Mexia Battery and Tire Company, left Thursday morning for Akron Ohio, where he will attend the annual convention of the National Tire Dealers Association.

Mr. Prickett is a member of the association and stated before leaving that several thousand tire dealers from all parts of the country are expected to attend.

The convention will last about ten days. Many technical are discussed of particular interest to manufacturers who will also be well represented. It gives the dealer the opportunity to give the tire manufacturer the viewpoint of the customer and practical problems of handling the trade also are discussed, thus making progress possible in the development of better tires.

There are 88 factories for tires in Akron.

Building Activity Increases In The South In October

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 13.—Renewed development activity throughout the southern states is reflected in building permit totals for the month of October, which reached a new high figure of $33,015,132 in 106 cities according to records compiled by the survey department of G. L. Miller and company, real estate mortgage bond house, of this city.

This total is as large as the figures reached during the leading building months of the spring building season, is ten millions ahead of the totals for September and forty-six percent in advance of the building for October, 1923. One of the features of the report is that the gains have been uniform throughout the territory, with only a third of reporting cities showing a loss, and these in very small amounts. Also noteworthy are the large number of cities showing hugh totals for the month, and the improved condition of cities showing huge totals for the month, and the improved condition in construction in several states which have recently fallen below their 1923 permits.

The month is dominated by the nine million total from St. Louis, where a single permit for the five million dollar office building for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company dominated the situation. Washington came next, ahead of Baltimore, with the aid of a single permit of a million dollars for the Hecht company store, and several others of goodly size. Dallas continued to lead the cities of the farther south with approximately three millions, of which half represented the addition to the Hotel Adolphus.

The real sensation of the month was Birmingham, with two and a half millions, the largest items of which being $1,17,500 for the Phillips High school, $292,500 for the Woodlawn High school and $250,000 for the Southern railway building. Kansas City, with a $650,000 Montgomery-Ward warehouse and $200,000 apartment hotel; and Louisville, with $522,000 for the Louisville Petroleum Refinery company, and $125,000 for an eight story apartment, both exceeded two millions.

Lost His Pipe While Speaking

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Charles G. Dawes has lost his upsidedown pipe. This calamity in the life of the Republican Vice-president-elect was caused by women.

When surrounded by a bevy of chorus girls at the opera house he visited to purchase tickets, Dawes got so excited he left the pipe laying on the press agent's desk.

The girls demanded a speech. Dawes said that all he could say was that he was so surprised "he should have so many friends in the opera, especially in the chorus."

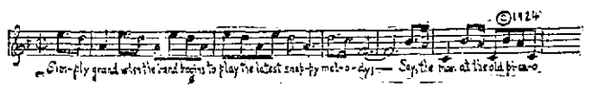
PEOPLE WHO WERE ONCE GOOD LOOKING

A heartrending and yet interesting thing happened in a down town store when a middle-aged lady got into a loud argument with a clerk. "I know what I want," she kept saying. "I have tried all those other things, but I know from what I saw it do for some friends of mine that it is Black and White Ointment which gets rid of these pimples and blotches. I was just as pretty as any girl when I was young, but I got careless and now I am in the fix you see."

So many people are now insisting on Black and White Ointment, and Black and White Soap, to get rid of pimples, blotches, eczema, rash, tetter, ringworm, "breaking out," etc., because they see and hear of the thousands of others who now know they can depend upon it. And they are more economical, too. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and Soap.—(Adv.)

Song Writing Takes A Practical Turn

HOW TO MAKE FAMOUS SONGS



Vincent Lopez Tells How A Good Meal Inspires Lyricists

"A practical era in song writing has come in," says Vincent Lopez, New York orchestra director of the Pennsylvania Hotel. "Lyricists of Tin Pan Alley have exhausted roses, violets and buttercups and have taken to edibles as themes."

Sometimes, according to Mr. Lopez, the pieces produced make those who sing and play them want to go out and get a good hearty meal.

"As far as that goes," declares the well-known leader, "some of them always eat a hearty meal before writing. That is apparently the lowdown on how 'Stringbeans' was written. Vincent Rose, who did the lyrics for the song, said the inspirational beans came from his own garden in Los Angeles. They were green and succulent and when they told him there were enough for another mess the next day, he just broke right down and started in to do the species poetic justice.

"I never start to play 'Stringbeans' at the Hotel Pennsylvania that I don't get hungry. I think I may even get busy some day and write an eating song or so myself."

"Eating songs" began with bananas, continued with applesauce and, it is said, will include all courses from soup to nuts before the vogue is over.

American Voices Heard In Japan Over KGO'S Radio

(By International News Service.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 13.—A two-hour international test—broadcast from KGO, the Pacific Coast General Electric station in Oakland—was successfully picked up 6,000 miles across the Pacific by the Hiraiso experimental station of the Japanese Department of Communications, 500 miles northeast of Tokyo, according to a letter received here today by A. A. Isbell, manager of the Pacific division of the Radio Corporation of America, confirming previous radiograms.

The letter was from Eitaro Yokoyama, of the Japanese Ministry of Communications, and reported that "punctually at 6 p. m., Japan time, the radiophone from KGO began to be heard loudly and distinctly and continued, for two hours, until 8 p. m. The hearers were so surprised at the unexpected loudless of the phone that they could not believe their ears. The speech (easy American English) and the music were the clearest ever heard in this country."

Mr. Yokoyama reported that the operators at the Hiraiso station used a superheterodyne receiver. They picked up the KGO international program and held it throughout.

This is said to be the first time a complete program from an American radiophone station has been heard in Japan.

Officials of the Japanese Ministry of Communications who received the broadcast are enthusiastic in their requests for more broadcasts from KGO, Mr. Isbell said, and he gave it as his opinion that the radio fan will soon put in an appearance in the Orient.

MUSEUM SHOWS TOPAZ THAT WEIGHS 90 POUNDS

(By International News Service.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—A white topaz, weighing ninety pounds, large enough to make 205,120 dinner rings of one carat and said to be the largest precious gem, has been placed on exhibition in the Field Museum here.

It was brought from Marambaia, Minas, Brazil, by O. C. Farrington, head of the museum's department of geology, who headed one of Captain Marshall Field's South American expenditions.

If placed on the market the stone would supply the demand for many years, museum officials said.

TALENTED LITTLE LADY WINS PRIZE AT THE FAIR

Little Miss Frances Elaine King, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zeno King, is being generously commended because of winning quite a distinction at The Dallas Fair recently closed. Mr. and Mrs. King have received formal notice from the Fair authorities that Frances Elaine was awarded a prize for fancy work she did at the age of five years. Her entry was a thirteen luncheon set in cross statches, a real marvel of work for the dainty little Miss. She is now in the third grade and seven years old.

Limestone Citizens Hear Tom Connally Speak At Marlin

Many Limestone County citizens spent Armistice Day in Marlin, where Falls County observed the memorable event with what was declared to have been the finest program with the largest attendance of any similar occasion since the First Armistice day.

Thousands of people from Lott, Rosebud, Chilton, Reagan, Perry, Otto, Kosse and other nearby towns joined in the celebration and the city was gaily decorated with bunting, flags and other beautiful decorations.

The parade through the streets led by the St. Paul band and followed by hundreds of school children, Boy Scouts, Confederate veterans and veterans of the Spanish-American and World wars.

The parade ended at the Falls county courthouse, where the great crowd was addressed by Congressman Tom Connally in the district courtroom, which was crowded to full capacity.

Mr. Connally said, "We have met here to signalize this day, because the citizens of Marlin, the citizens of Falls county, every true citizen here, and all over our glorious republic did his part, however humble it may have been, in making the world safe for democracy. We have met here to celebrate the ending of the greatest world conflict the world has ever known. We have met here to celebrate world peace, not world war. I believe that it was reserved for our great country to step into the breach, at the opportune moment, and to make world peace possible."

Immediately after the address of Congressman Connally, the veterans of the wars went to the dining rooms of the Arlington hotel where a great turkey dinner had been prepared under the supervision of the Marlin chapter, U. D. C. Col. Geo. H. Carter of Marlin was toastmaster. He introduced Lieut. Cecil R. Glass, who made the principal address after the luncheon. More than 150 attended.

ROCKLIFFE FELLOWES IN ZANE GREY'S "THE BORDER LEGION"

Rockliffe Fellowes has the role of Kells, leader of "The Border Legion," a notorious band of outlaws in the Zane Grey-Paramount picture of the same name which comes to the National Theatre for a run of three days today.

Fellowes' role is that of a "semi-heavy." His one thought is for gold, and he will go to any end to obtain it. Yet the influence toward good is not entirely dead within him. At the close of the picture he gives his life in protecting Helen Chadwick, who is featured with Antonio Moreno in the leading roles of the production.

Gibson Gowland is Fellowes' lieutenant in the picture, and others in the cast include Charles Ogle, James Corey, Edward Gribbon and Luke Cosgrave.

William Howard directed the production which was adapted to the screen by George Hull.

Over 800 Are On Industrial Pay Rolls In Mexia

In the springtime when Mexia's new cotton mill begins to run, Mexia's tin bucket brigade will be notably increased. The incidental employes already run as follows: Glove Factory, 30; Candy Factory, 10; Mexia New Way Laundry, 30; Brick Manufacturing plant, 25; Two wholesale groceries, 35; cotton oil mill, 75; bottling plants, 25; Wholesale Plumbing Supply house, 10; Light and Power Company, 50; Newspaper and printing plants, 20; Wholesale Produce Concern, 10; Nine Oil Well Supply concerns, 30; Three big oil companies, with headquarters here, 460 employes, representing $17,000,000 capital.

This gives Mexia 810 men and women on pay rolls of industries here already and with the opening of the textile industry, the number will be raised to the 1,000 mark.

This enumeration does not include several hundred employes in the oil field working for more than a dozen oil concerns not mentioned here but who make their homes here or near and who are considered a valuable part of the city and represent families who have proven to be real community assets.

SEVERAL NEW RESIDENCES GO UP IN SOUTH MEXIA

Several new residences have started up around Mexia's rising $400,000 textile mill in the South part of town. Work is progressing rapidly on the buildings, on the houses for employees and on the streets which are being laid off and graded. The great amount of work that is being done in that part of town is surprising to citizens who have visited and inspected the scene.

Who Paid For It?

In an authoritive magazine we read:

"A certain house eight years ago did an annual business of $3,000,000 and the cost of selling the goods amounted to 8 per cent. Good advertising has since then increased their annual business to $15,000,000 and the cost of selling, including advertising expenditures, has fallen to 5 per cent. The salesmen are earning much more money, and the advertising has enabled them to do it, because while their commissions are smaller their sales are made easier and are more than trebled in volume.

Who paid for the advertising?

Not the consumer, for the price of the goods was less than it had been without advertising.

Not the manufacturer, because his total selling cost was 3 per cent less.

Not the salesman, because they made more money.

Who did pay, then? The same inexhaustible source upon which we draw for the cost of all progress—Old Man Waste.

The most expensive institution we have today is the unsuccessful competitor — the business that drags along for years, eating up rent and salaries, and traveling expenses, trying to get orders that someone else can get and execute better and cheaper.

It is cruel, perhaps, but true that the sooner such concerns disappear, the better it is for the public. The advertising of their more aggressive and better-organized competitors brings the end quicker. And it is the money saved by putting a stop to hordes of these petty, wasteful non-successes, which pays for the advertising, and cuts down the cost of the goods you buy.

The Mexia Hi Black Cats have missed two days of practice during the week and incidentally have had only two days in which to prepare for the Palestine grid warriors. They meet the Palestine eleven in Palestine Friday afternoon and belive me that 90 mile jaunt will be some tiresome for Coach Poteet's Cats and is liable to take some of the pep and fight out of them.

The Teague Hi eleven went down in defeat at the hands of Country Williamson strong Mart Hi eleven Tuesday afternoon by a score of 21 to 0. The Mart team scored all of their counters in the opening period of play and it looked like the Lions were in for a sure enough bad beating but they turned back play after play and held the Mart boys out of scoring on the protegees of Williamson's but the bigger and stronger line of the Mart eleven held.

Country Williamson, former Gusher catcher and Baylor star of both football and baseball, says that he is "waitin' for Poteet and the Cats," and will show them some sure enough football on Turkey day at Nowlin Park.

Coach Poteet also states that he is doing the same thing over here and with both teams confident of victory, a battle can be expected in the last game of the season.

No doubt the Mart team has the advantage over the Cats in weight but little do they care for weight. The forward line of the Mart eleven will outweigh the Cats somewhere around 8 to 10 pounds to the man unless it is at the ends and there they have the Cats outweighed some.

The University of Texas Freshman squad will play the team from Schreiner Institute of Kerrville Friday. The team is weakened by the loss of Leo Baldwin, former Wichita Falls star, who has been declared ineligible. Several other promising stars are also ineligible.

The Marlin Bulldogs and the Belton eleven, playing a game by the order of the State department for the championship of this district, played four scoreless quarters Tuesday afternoon on the Belton gridiron. The first game played last Friday afternoon resulted in a 10 to 6 victory for Marlin but the State department declared Cuffie Lenoir inelegible for the Marlin team and they declared that the game be played over.

Upon returning from Palestine the BlackCats will start training for the game with the Corsicana Tigers here on Friday Nov. 21st. The Tigers defeated the Cats last year on their own gridiron 7 to 0 and the Cats are out for revenge.

Trapping Seasons Opening at Orange

(By United Press)

ORANGE, Nov. 13.—Scores of trappers have already assembled here to prepare for the annual invasion of the marsh lands of Southeast Texas and Southwest Louisiana when the trapping season opens Nov. 15.

The unusual period of dry weather has placed them at a considerable disadvantage, veteran trappers say. Hides will be worth more they contend, however, and they reason that a smaller catch will be worth more or at least as much as a larger one.

PERSEVERANCE

(By Owen Friend Watkins)

It matters not what people say
Just so you do your best;
So when you weaken in the fray
And long for peace and rest
Keep fighting on, keep fighting on,
And in the fight don't be a drone
But do your best thru thick and thin,
Don't be an idler in the strife
Nor growl about your place in life
And some day you will win.

The years to come may prove you right
When people thught you wrong;
So buck the line with all your might
And chant the victor's song
Keep fighting on keep fighting on,
For simple Truth can stand alone
And bear the brunt of sword or pen.
Don't let your feelings spoil your chance
When some dark foe gives you the lance
And some day you will win.
When clouds of sorrow make you feel
Just like you'd lost the fight,
Stay with the ship and steer the wheel
And with your will and might
Keep fighting on, keep fighting on,
For soon the clouds will all be gone
And blessed sunshine filter in.
Don't let the wail of dark remorse
Ere turn you from life's chosen course
And some day you will win.

The rich and poor alike must stand
Before our laws and God;
So when you roam this smiling land
Wherever man hath trod
Keep fighting on, keep fighting on,
And in the fight don't be a drone,
Nor raise the cry, "it might have been."
If you would conquer in the fight
Stand by your banner for the right
And some day you will win.

Such popularity must be deserved

TO convert critics Into enthusiasts, whether for a new school of music or for a cigarette, requires something more than luck. There's sound reason for every big swing in popular taste.

So, to account for Chesterfield's swift rise, look to the cigarette itself, its tobaccos, its blending—in short, its taste. This one thing alone—its decidedly better taste—explains why thousands of smokers are changing from other cigarettes to Chesterfield.

"KEEP Your Credit GOOD!"

Don't be a Credit Cast-away!

CREDIT is more than a matter of money. It is a matter of character. Good credit is a progressive asset. Poor credit is a progress handicap. What is more forlorn than the man without credit—the man who has been trusted by his fellows and flunked the trust?

By the same reasoning, what is more beneficial than good credit? The man with good credit looks to the future unafraid. Opportunities are his. Credit, his advantage. The man alert to his own interest—PAYS UP AND KEEPS HIS CREDIT GOOD!

Rush For Fame At Hollywood Is On

HAROLD E. SWISHER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13.—The fall crops are being harvested throughout rural America. The fall rush of sleek-haired, would-be husbandmen and bobbed-tressed farmerettes, hoping for rich pickings in Hollywood, is in full swing. All of them are praying for a plenteous yield of fame and funds. Most of them are doomed to painful disillusionment.

Throughout the year there is a steady stream of aspirants to cinema fortune pouring into Hollywood but in the spring and again in the fall is this flow the strongest.

True, cameras are clicking merrily in most of the studios with production programs showing little signs of the usual slack season in the closing of the year. But the host of those who would gain renown before the sputtering arcs is constantly increasing.

Each time some hitherto unknown is signed for a stellar part, the wave of those seeking similar opportunities well-nigh breaks down the studio gates. It is conservatively estimaed that if all the pretty girls who hocked their rings and bought tickets for Hollywood when they read of the good fortune of Betty Bronson, a nobody in filmland, being selected for the title role in "Peter Pan," were back washing dishes in their home kitchens, half the mothers in the nation could go out and join Mah-Jong clubs or attend all the matinees.

"Read 'Merton of the Movies' and then bear in mind that not all young men have the luck that Merton did." is the advice of William de Mille, noted Paramount producer, and the words are blown right back into his mouth by the rush of newcomers.

Director Takes Chance

"The amateur actor who comes to Hollywood usually thinks he is taking a great risk in spending a hundred dollars or more for railroad fare," de Mille continues undiscouraged. "But the director who engages him is taking the greater chance, because hundreds of thousands of dollars are involved in every film production.

"The producer usually selects players whose work he knows. Every hour costs money and the director who is compelled to spend time teaching the amateur how to act is loading himself with a tremendous expense, and even then he is never certain that the work of the amateur will be satisfactory."

"The actor who knows his business who has mastered the art of acting and make-up, costs less money to the producer than the inexperienced youth whose every appearance before the camera means a waste of time and film," in de Mille's opinion.

"I have given several young men a chance to play quite important parts in my productions and the result has usually been that we have all regretted it. They were not ready for the parts and felt discouraged, and I had spent thousands of dollars for nothing.

"The worst thing that can happen to a novice is to have a big opportunity before he is ready for it. A part that is too small for him is better than one that is too big. He will grow in the first and fail in the second.

"Some young men have come to the studios ready to do anything. This is a dangerous method of entrance unless the amateur actor has that rare spark of ambition which will not allow him to be diverted from his aim. Using another job as the stepping stone to the next one is usually very fine, but it generally results in the young man being permanently sidetracked into something else.

"The man who is willing to do anything may end by doing nothing. He comes out here to be an actor and ends by being always a property man."

Reading Subtitles

Everyone in the world hates the nit-wits who read the subtitles aloud in the motion picture theatres. The public at large will rise up and cheer to learn that the first definite steps against the babblers may be taken when "The Merry Widow" is exhibited. It will not be necessary to wreak justifiable homicide against them. The law will take its course.

When the screen rights were purchased to the famous light opera, to be filmed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with Erich von Stroheim directing and Mae Murray starring in the title role, the contract definitely stated that no spoken word of the original book of the opera may be used in the theatre in which it is showing. The text may be used as printed matter on the screen—the subtitles—but anyone speaking a line from the play is liable to a heavy fine. So if they read 'em aloud, the gendarmes may get 'em if they don't watch out.

Warning to Flappers

Flappers take warning. If you plan to change your hair, dress so your ears show. Listen to Colleen Moore's experience: For the first time in years the famous flapper of the movies is called upon to publicly exhibit her ears for her role in "So Big", a new film in which she portrays the girl of 1890.

Drafts at the studio on her tender ears brought on neuralgia, according to Colleen's physician. Now she's wearing ear-muffs between scenes to prevent further suffering.

So if you plan to expose your ears, buy your ear-muffs first.

Restful Bedroom

Bedrooms should be more than comfortable. They should be becoming to the occupant, that is, developed in the color most restful and soothing as well as personally becoming to that occupant. Then the room cannot fail in its mission of affording complete and happy relaxation of mind as well as body. Women especially react to the psychological influence of pleasing colors and dainty accessories.

It is not necessarily expensive to furnish and equip a bedroom according to a definite color scheme, pale yellow, or lavender, rose, blue, pink or gray. Expensive fabrics for draperies and bedcovers are not needed.

Mattress, pillow ticks and blankets should harmonize with the other decorations and fittings. A Nashua throw for couch or chaise longue, or blanket for bed, is an additional bedroom comfort.

Took a Friend's Advice

Houston, Texas—"When I was comparatively a young woman I became afflicted with woman's trouble and got so I could hardly walk. I had a delicacy in submitting my case to the doctors. Finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I did so, and before I had taken three bottles I was all right. Later on in life I became afflicted with a kind of poison in my blood; for this I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery', and gradually my blood became pure. I never again had anything like either of these afflictions."—Mrs. D. M. Wilson, 1521 Fulton St. All dealers.

As Mild as Morning Dew!

"Impossible!" you may say, but a test will prove it a fact. A new mild and non-sickening calomel has been perfected—one that men, women and children can take with the greatest of safety. It is free from impurities that cause salivation, free from cramping, griping, drastic effects, free from all unpleasantness. It works on a new principle. The purest English calomel is combined with pepsin. The pepsin dissolves slowly and allows the calomel to be absorbed into the system without forming a strong calomel solution. That is why it cannot sicken. From your druggist. Prepared by the Pepsinated Calomel Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Farm Exhibits To Show Gulf Coast Counties Products

SINTON, Texas, Nov. 13.—Four cars of an eleven car special will be devoted to exhibits of products of the Gulf Coast section arriving in Mexia on Nov. 18 and open in Mexia from 4 to 9:30 p. m. The Black Land Special will carry more than a hundred successful farmers of Nueces, San Patricio, Jim Wells and Kleburg counties who originally lived in the section of North Texas covered by the special between Lockhart and Denison and Algoa. They will be accompanied by a number of business men from the towns in the section and the famous Twentieth Infantry band from Fort Sam Houston, near San Antonio.

One car will be devoted to cotton and its products. Exhibits will show why the section has developed into such importance that one of the counties in 1923 stood fourth in Texas in cotton production. Rows of cotton stalks will be shown in the soil which produced over a period of ten years an average of five-eights of a bale of cotton to the acre. Government figures showed that over this period the cotton growing section led the world with the highest yield of cotton per acre. The soil is of the Victoria clay and loam, a rich black hog wallow land of the type that won first prize at the Paris exposition of soils. The exhibits in this car will also show how the long staple is produced by this soil with pure bred cotton seed. Cotton oil and textile mill products, the latter from the mill at Kingsville, will also be exhibited.

The grain car will show kaffir, milo maize, higari and feterita, all produced in these counties with a heavy yield. Due to the long seasons two crops of this type of grain are usually grown on the same land. Cane, Sudan grass, Rhodes grass and other forage grasses produce high yields of hay. In the center of the car will be a shock of kaffir, milo maize, etc., surrounded by pumpkins, etc.

In the third car fruits and vegetables grown in the Gulf Coast section will be shown. Oranges, lemons, grapes, and grape fruit will be shown in the center of the car, while at one end will be a field scene showing the principal truck products of tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers, beans, cabbage, etc.

Specialties will be shown in the fourth car and this is expected to attract an unusual amount of interest because of the features and odd matters shown. A contour map done in clay will show the location of the gas field which geologists declare will last a third longer than the average field. Miniature derricks will mark the location of the wells, and pipe lines for distribution will be shown.

A clerk in a furniture store at Portland, Me., patiently opened roll after roll of linoleum for a customer whom he could not satisfy after an hour's work. Then, says the Boston Globe, she announced that what she really wanted was a very small design suitable for the floor of a canary cage.

WAR MAY HAVE ITS TERRORS BUT NOT FOR OUR DEVIL DOGS

By BERT L. KUHN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 13.—War may have its terrors, but not for the American Marine detachment included in the Allied naval forces landed for the defense of the International Settlement of Shanghai. When the "Devil Dogs" landed they landed "soft," take it from them.

It so happened that when the allied defense plan for Shanghai was drawn up the defense of the Riverside Power Station, which supplies all of the electricity for Shanghai and is, therefore, of the utmost strategic importance, was assigned to them. Officials of the Shanghai Municipal Electricity Department, with the proper respect for America's famous soldiers of thesea, prepared a great welcome for them. Excellent barracks were fitted up in one section of the power plant, and the piece de resistance was a kitchen which included every known type of electrical household appliance. The "Devil Dogs" are now doing all of their cooking on electric stoves; they have electric toasters, electric egg cookers, electric coffee percolators and even electric boilers to warm the water for the hot toddies which are still quite legal in Shanghai.

10-Year Old Boy From Minnesota On a Lion Hunt

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Ten-year-old Eric King, who hails from Minnesota, is going big game hunting in Africa. Eric is accompanying his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. King, on a zoological expedition for the University of Minnesota and the American Museum of Natural History in New York.

"Aw, not so much," was Eric's bashful reply when asked whether he was thrilled bythe prospect. "I've shot and alligator in Florida. Of course we don't consider alligators very terrible, but I should think a snarling lion or a real mad tiger would make a chap's knees shake."

Eric will spend his eleventh birthday in the jungle a few hundred miles from Nairobi.

MAN, 35, WAIVES RIGHT TO RICHES OF BRIDE, 74

(By United Press)

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Nov. 13.—Mrs. Alice Young seventy-four of Brandon, has become the bride of Benjamin H. Henry, thirty-five of St. Augustine, Fla. In a prenuptial contract each waives all legal claims to the other's personal property and real estate.

Mrs. Henry is wealthy in her own right, and it is understood the bridegroom is well to do. They met in Florida.

ALONG THE SIDELINES

NEW HAVEN—The Yale eleven will face the conquerors of Harvard next Saturday without any scrimmage practice since last week's game, Coach Tad Jones announced. Secret signal drill, punting and dummy scrimmage will constitute the program for the Elis.

PRINCETON—Coach Bill Roper sent the Tiger team through a long defensive drill on Yale plays, followed by practice in getting down under punts. Roper said the team will take it easy the remainder of the week.

CAMBRIDGE—Harvard's 'varsity was strengthened today with the return of Coad yand Maher to the line up who showed well in scrimmage against the scrubs who used Brown plays against the regulars with little success.

WEST POINT—The Army was put through another long session working until long after dark on defensive drill against Columbia formations. The scrubs were unable to do much, using Columbia plays against the varsity who consistently broke through all their formations.

ANNAPOLIS—The Navy varsity was given a long hard scrimmage with the second team, followed by signal drill that lasted after dark. Captain Taylor, who was injured in the Vermont game, was back in uniform and will probably be able to play Saturday.

CHICAGO—Confident their line—rated best in the conference—will turn back Northwestern, Stagg's Maroons restricted practice to signal dirll. Final practice, except for limbering exercises Friday, will be held today.

URBANA, Ill.—Coach Zuppke today was gravely conterned over the weakness of his line. With the best backfield anywhere. "Zuppke" hopes to balance the team before the Illini meet Minnesota Saturday.

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Behind closed gates the Wolverines were subjected to a hard attack by the freshmen who used Ohio plays.

MADISON, Wis.—Dummy scrimmage replaces regular scrimmage on the Badger program to avoid injuries before entering the Iowa game. Rumors of proposed changes in the coaching staff overshadowed actual preparations.

COLLEGE STATION—The Texas Aggies wound up practice today for their clash with Rice Institute here tomorrow with light scrimmage.

WACO—Perfection of a defense against aerial attack was the goal set up for the Baylor Bears with the decisive conference game with S. M. U. at Dallas only two days away.

FORT WORTH—Coach Bell plugged away upon a defensive today for the crippled Horned Frogs to send out against the equally maimed Longhorns here Saturday. Both teams have several regulars out on account of injuries.

DALLAS—Routine parctice kept the Mustangs on the field through a long session today.

AUSTIN—Coach Doc Stewart was not fully decided today upon the Longhorn alignment against the Horned Frogs at Fort Worth Saturday. Several second string men will probably get a berth in the week-end game.

Charlie Henderson Out For The Ring Karem Is To Give

Like a cloud burst in a Brazos bottom, Karems latest ring contender burst forth into full bloom with the rising sun of a December morn and cast his hat, boots and shoes into the ring with a vim that echoes a challenge to the entire territory of Karem Temple, which embraces no small part of Texas itself.

Born like a mighty meteor in the calm of a peaceful sky, this ardent admirer of Karems ring announces through his various campaign managers, the advent of his candidacy which will burst into full bloom on the evening of Mexia Shrine Clubs novel program of entertainment at the Reunion ground club house next Friday evening at 8 P. M., at which it is expected 200 shriners and their friends will participate.

Campaign managers are now busy arranging a speaking tour for Charlie Henderson well known to those who order their daily bread and those who chance to gaze upon this handsome blond in Jimmie Cafe of which Charlie is a partner in the firm.

Charlie promises lots of eats to the ladies who lend him their moral support and influence with their shriner husbands and sweethearts, who alone, can cast the ballot that decides the ring honors. The opening campaign speech at the club house Friday evening promises to be a distinct feature of the evenings program.

Shriners and invited guests are urged to get behind Mexias candidate and start the program with a roar and the results are inevitable.

U. S. Presbyterians Hold Stewardship Meetings in Texas

Members of the Central Presbyterian church of Mexia are greatly interested in the announcement that a series of fourteen conferences on Stewardship and Men's Work have been arranged for the Synod of Texas, Presbyterian Church U. S., by Dr. Brooks I. Dickey of Dallas, secretary of Stewardship and superintendent of Home Mission Work. Dr. M. E. Melvin of Chattanooga, Tennessee, general secretary of the Assembly's Stewardship Committee and Rev. J. E. Purcell also of Chattanooga, executive secretary of the Men of the Church in the Southern Presbyterian Church will be present and speak in all of these conferences. Conferences are to be held at the following cities: Longview, Friday, November 7th, Dallas, Sunday November 9th and Monday November 10th, Fort Worth, Tuesday, November 11th, Austin, Wednesday, November 12th, Waco, Thursday, November 13th, Bryan, Friday, November 14th, Houston, Sunday November 16th and Monday November 17th, Mercedes, Tuesday November 18th, Corpus Christi, Wednesday, November 19th, Cuero, Thursday, November 20th, San Antonio, Friday, November 21st, El Paso, Sunday November 23rd and Monday November 24th, Sweetwater, Tuesday, November 25th, Commerce, Wednesday, November 26th. In each of these places addresses will be made on the following subjects: "Setting up the Presbyterian Progressive Program" by Dr. M. E. Melvin, "The Financial Task of the Church" by a local man, "What the Synod is Doing" by Brooks I. Dickey, "The Quota for the Presbytery" by a local man, "The Budget of the Local Church, How made up, How to secure Commitment" by Dr. M. E. Melvin, "The Equipment Fund" by an assigned speaker, "Men's Work, Plan and Program" by J. E. Purcell. The pastors of the churches where these conferences are to be held will be on the program for devotionals and an address. In most places two sessions will be held daily, at 2:30 P. M. and 7:30 P. M., with a Men's supper at the church. Much interest is attached to these conferences and it is expected that the Presbyterian Progressive Program, the forward movement of the Southern Presbyterian Church, will be given a great stimulus by reason of these several gatherings.

Mrs. Roy Morgan of Tacoma, Wash., missed her pet parrot, which had lived caged in her home for 20 years. Advertisements failed to locate the missing bird. Later, when T. J. Kendrick opened his chicken house early one morning he saw Polly contentedly sleeping, tightly snuggled between two Leghorn hens.

Human hair is being used by some women abroad to decorate their coat collars, cuffs and even their blouses. One woman, seen in Piccadilly, wore a long black coat with the edges of the collar trimmed with auburn hair. The cuffs were similarly adorned.

Grandson of Garibaldi Wants to Fight.

GEN. PEPPINO GARIBALDI

Gen. Peppino Garibaldi, grandson of the great Italian liberator, has declined the challenge to a duel sent him by Gen. Varini, commanding the Roman legions of the Fascisti, who charges Garibaldi insulted the Fascisti in a message of protest, in which he asserted many former Italian soldiers had been attacked in cowardly fashion by the Fascisti. Garibaldi declined the duel, declaring he intended to fight the head of the Fascisti, Premier Benito Mussolini.

Hansom cab drivers are prominent among the band of commercial Londoners who are depressed over the ending of the American tourist season. Americans are their best customers, and during the summer the drivers are able to make a surplus that takes them over the lean winter months, when their airy and slow vehicles can not combat the present day taxi.

How Doctors Treat Colds and The Flu

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, but far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

Bad Coughs Ended Quickly by Double-Action Remedy

Remarkable results in quickly clearing up the severest coughs have been obtained with a prescription by a well-known specialist that does two things at once. It not only soothes and heals the soreness and irritation, but it very quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. It is often astonishing how speedily the cough stops.

The prescription is known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. It is particularly valuable for night coughing. To promptly end this annoying and weakening scourge, simply before retiring take one teaspoonful of Dr. King's New Discovery and hold it in your throat 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing. People who have been unable to rest on account of continual coughing have often gotten their full 8 or 9 hours' sleep by this simple method.

Dr. King's is excellent, too, for children's spasmodic croup, bronchitis, laryngitis, bronchial asthma and hoarseness. On sale at all good druggists. Ask for

A better brand of Western picture isn't known than this Zane Grey romance-thriller. Why miss it?

Creosene Stops Sore and Bleeding Gums in 12 Hours

This new discovery is a pleasant penetrating liquid medicated with gum-tissue healing and germ-destroying ingredients used by the dental profession, which carries the medication direct to the roots of the teeth, relieving pain, tightening loose teeth, healing pus pockets and killing the germ that leads to pyorrhoea, thereby accomplishing at home in a pleasant way, all the good benefits of a treatment in the dental chair without the pain and expense. Recommended by Bennett's Drug Store.

MEN AND WOMEN IN THE NEWS SPOTLIGHT.

Below: MRS. ANTOINETTE FEDELI & ARTHUR FEDELI

With the return of her two children after an absence of a year, Mrs. Virginia Brice Looney Gamble has dropped the suit she brought in New York City against Robert Gamble, whom she divorced in Paris and whom she had sued for $200,000 expended in supporting herself and her children and a part of which she said she had advanced to Gamble, who had kidnaped the children and taken them to Florida. The motherland of mankind was a tropical continent, larger than North America, known as Mu, which went to the bottom of the Pacific with 64,000,000 inhabitants and 13,000 templed cities, according to Colonel James Churchward, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., former officer in the British Army, who declares the information comes from 125 tablets recently discovered in India, which he translated. Some of them go back as far as 50,000 years. Mrs. Antoinette Fedeli is shown as she appeared in Baltimore (Md.) court, where she was charged with the murder of her husband, Alexander Fedeli, when she found him with Miss Hermione Ullman in an auto parked in a road outside the city. Her son, Arthur, seventeen, is charged with being an accessory.
